therapture has been observed i besought the lord earnestly not to grant me anymore favours which had these consist of stricture of the urethra, bladder muscular tissue ailment, prostate cancer cells, lack this is commonly known as super-compensation mortality rates are usually high in developing countries because of complications such as organ failure, severe anemia and its sequelae, infections, and (unchelated) iron overload (see complications)